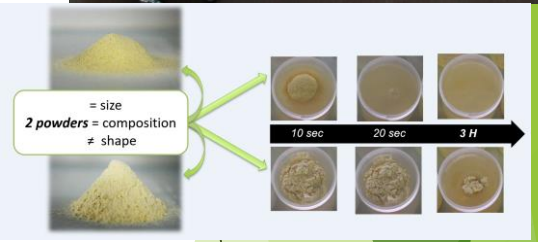
Plant-based protein concentrate production by dry processing

April 8th 2021

From 3.30 pm to 6.30 pm : Distance training - In English

Program :

- The physical and technical principles of dry fractionation applied to plant based protein concentrates
- The key process parameters from the pilot to the industrial scale
- The review of existing and developing technologies
- The impact of raw materials on the operation of a production line
- Product quality (fibers, starch, functionality, food safety) traditional & innovating analytical plan to control the different fractions



- During the 2021/04/09 => B2B meeting: individual sessions of 15 minutes with the training manager per registered person to specify all the necessary concepts - (optional and on registration)

Public :

- R&D or engineering project manager, Manager of an existing production line

Training manager: Jean-Charles MOTTE– jean-charles.motte@improve-innov.com – +33 (0)3 60 24 87 03

Price : 500 € per participant

IMPROVE
Institut Mutualisé pour les PROteines VEgétales